

Safety Center

Community Rules

Harassment and Violent Behavior

It is a violation of our Community Guideline to:

- Threaten or intimidate other users.
- Harass, bully or spam other users.
- Make threats of physical harm or other criminal activities.
- Ask for nude photos of other users.

It is against our Community Guidelines to share:

- Gory or graphic images/videos.
- Images/videos that promote violence, such as violent acts, guns, knives or weapons.
- Don't post hateful content or promote organized crime of any kind, including terrorism.

Sexually Explicit Behavior and Content

It is a violation of our Community Guideline to:

- Display any sexual content involving minors.
- Promote or advertise sexual services.

It is against our Community Guidelines to share:

- Pornographic or sexually explicit content.
- Shirtless/underwear mirror selfies/videos.
- Nude images/videos of yourself or others.
- Photos/videos in bikinis/swimwear indoors.
- Pictures/videos in underwear.

Identity

It is a violation of our Community Guideline to:

- Not show your face clearly when you are live streaming.
- Use any fake pictures as profile picture.
- Pretend to be someone else.

Safety Center

- Lie about your birthday.
- Impersonate other people.
- Use pictures or videos of people without seeking their permission.
- Use other users' social media accounts.

Obeying the Law

- Use Xlive for any unlawful activities.
- Share images/videos that promote any drugs.
- Solicit other users with coupon codes, sales links or other spam.

What happens if you violate our Community Guidelines?

If you are reported or found to be in violation of our Community Guidelines, you will receive a warning. However, for behavior which shows a clear lack of consideration for our guidelines or breaks the law, we will instantly ban the account. The rules outlined here are designed to make the Xlive community a friendly and safe space for everyone.